Licenses and Certifications

PHEOWL LTD maintains any additional licenses, permits, or certifications required for the provision of our services. This may include professional certifications for our architects, engineers, and creative designers, as well as any necessary business certifications that validate our capacity to offer specialized services in accordance with industry standards.

Third-Party Licenses

In some cases, PHEOWL LTD may rely on third-party licenses for software, tools, or intellectual property required to provide our services. PHEOWL LTD ensures that all third-party licenses are legally obtained and comply with the licensing agreements. Clients will be informed of any third-party software or resources used in the execution of the services.

License to Use Deliverables

Upon full payment for services rendered by PHEOWL LTD, clients are granted a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the final deliverables as specified in the project agreement. This license is granted solely for the purposes outlined in the agreement and does not transfer ownership of the underlying intellectual property rights to the client.

Restrictions

The client may not sub-license, distribute, or sell the deliverables without prior written consent from PHEOWL LTD. Additionally, the client may not reverse-engineer, modify, or create derivative works of the intellectual property unless explicitly permitted in writing by PHEOWL LTD.

Registration Requirements

PHEOWL LTD ensures that all registrations required for business operation, including but not limited to business tax registration and VAT registration, are maintained and updated in accordance with UK business laws.

Changes in Licensing or Registration

PHEOWL LTD agrees to inform clients of any significant changes in the licenses or registrations required to operate our business or deliver our services. Any impact on service delivery due to changes in licensing or registration will be communicated in a timely manner to ensure the continuity of the client's project.
